hi!

JENNIFER VANCIL

Jennifer is a Gallup Certified Strengths Coach. She facilitates team events, and specializes in career development.

CliftonStrengths

- Communication
- Connectedness
- Maximizer
- Woo
- Relator

BIO

Jennifer loves to help people create more meaningful lives by loving their work and valuing the people they work with. She's the expert contributor of the book Practical Strengths.

An ICF Trained Coach, and a Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach, Jennifer has presented in MBA classrooms, professional conferences, small business conference rooms, and in corporate leadership development programs - both online and in person.

She provides an interactive approach to learning. Expect to work in teams, role play, brainstorm, write, collaborate, and laugh. With a decade of experience teaching and writing about strengths, she has an anecdote for everything!

Education Highlights

Master's Degree in Adult Education

Bachelor's Degree in Theatre

ICF Trained Coach

Fun Facts

Jennifer spent 14 years in Alaska and loves to tell stories, so be sure to ask her about the midnight sun, being chased by a mama moose, and how dark it really is in winter. She is now based out of Fort Collins, Colorado.